Re: United States and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v. City of Reading, PA
Civil Action No. 04-cv-5696

Dear Judge Gardner:

A Consent Decree was entered in this case in 2005. Paragraph 91 of the Decree allows for modification of the Decree by written consent of all parties to the Decree. No court action is necessary when all parties are in agreement. Paragraph 91 also provides that modifications, with few exceptions, shall be in writing and filed with the Court. Please be advised that all parties to the Decree in this case have agreed to certain modifications to certain deadlines in the Decree. Enclosed is a courtesy copy of the parties' Notice of Modification of Consent Decree, which was electronically filed with the Clerk of the Court today.

Sincerely,

ZANE DAVID MEMEGER
United States Attorney

MARGARET L. HUTCHINSON
Assistant United States Attorney
Chief, Civil Division
